

Lesson 0131

Video/CD Title: It Is Good For a Man...
Disc Start Time: 00:00

Author: Stevn Furtick
Disc End Time: 47:28

Instructions: From the book of Genesis, we see that God gave Adam the command to not eat the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. It was after this command that God created Eve. God gives the boundaries before He gives the blessing.

Discussion 1: When we go against God's standards, we don't break the standard; the standard breaks us.

Drill Down 1:

- Share some of the ways that God's standards broke you when you violated His Word sexually? (Do not include your criminal offenses.)

- What has this "breaking" left you with? (Bitterness, resentment, fear, openness, greater trust, more Biblically law abiding?)

Discussion 2: Desire is meant to be a bi-product of your relationship, not a goal.

Drill Down 2:

- How has using your relationships in the past to meet your desires interfered with the health of the relationship?

- How do you think this may have fed into your sexual addiction?

Lesson 0131

Discussion 3: Until God has prepared us to enter a relationship as a giver, we go into it as a taker.

Drill Down 3:

- How might being a relational taker left you less than satisfied in earlier relationships?

- What are you currently allowing God to do in your life to transform you from a relational taker into a relational giver?
